

Coronavirus and Climate Change: A Contrast in Regional and Global Responses

If this is the webinar you signed up for, please stay tuned!

We will begin at 7:00 PM.

Thank you for joining us!

STAY COOL
PROTECT OUR GRANDKIDS FROM GLOBAL WARMING

July 16, 2020 Coronavirus and Climate Change: A Contrast in Regional and Global Response

7:00 Welcome and Overview

- Linda Giannelli Pratt, STAY COOL Advisory Council Chairperson

Introduction of Featured Speakers

- Geri Ingram, STAY COOL Advisory Council and Executive Team Member

7:10 Featured Speakers

- Jo-Ann Julien, County of San Diego Health & Human Services Agency

- Erica Ferrer, UCSD - Scripps Institution of Oceanography

7:50 Questions and Answers (Type questions in Q&A section and they will be read after the presentations.)

STAY COOL

PROTECT OUR GRANDKIDS FROM GLOBAL WARMING

- The STAY COOL Middle School Ocean Climate Science program has reached over 2,000 students.
- STAY COOL is working with San Diego Audubon Society in support of ReWild projects to expand the wetlands of Mission Bay.
- STAY COOL and the American Planning Association evaluating wildfire risks as an outcome of climate change and land development decisions.
- STAY COOL advocates for expansion of Community Choice Energy programs in San Diego County.
- STAY COOL has begun Public Health and Intergenerational Initiatives.

Visit our Website at <https://www.staycool4grandkids.org/>

Sign up to get our Newsletter, Blog Posts, and updates about important action alerts and events.

Join us in our regional work to protect future generations!

STAY COOL

PROTECT OUR GRANDKIDS FROM GLOBAL WARMING